Pursuant to RAP 10.8, plaintiff/respondent Locke relies on Bickford v. City of Seattle, 104 Wn.App. 809, 17 P.3d 1240 (2001) as a supplemental authority. That case is relevant to the issue of which side properly had the burden of proof relating to the city's affirmative defense of a statutory set off in a LEOFF case. Respondent apologizes for the lateness of this submission, but presumably the City of Seattle, who was a party to the Bickford case was previously aware of it.

DATED this 26th day of June, 2007.
